

Note: CD is closed. Edited transcript only available.

Summary Sheet R0064

- P.1 Born 1914 in Littleborough.
Came to Kendal by cycle, aged 17, with sister.
Began work as waitress in Highgate.
- P.2 Working on a fur farm at Grayrigg.
Cheap rail trips to Manchester.
- P.3 Kendal's "closed community". Socialism.
- P.4 Began work for Hine's, optician, near Town Hall.
Camping holidays.
Marriage proposal.
- P.5 Husband was surveyor for British law Insurance Company with office in Stricklandgate.
Photo of old Kings Arms.
- P.6 Attended public meeting in Kendal at the time of the Spanish Civil War.
Formation of League of Nations Group in Kendal.
- P6/7 Some background to Acland family.
- P.7 Husband joined Royal Army Pay Corps. Lived with doctor and family in Leeds.
Respondent working in Pay Corps. Joined Civil Servants Clerical Association.
- P.8 Leave from army.
Birth of second child at nursing home in Arnside.
- P.9 Both husband and respondent joined Labour Party and United Nations.
Kendal Labour Party members.
- P. 10 Labour Party members - Paul Wilson, Edward Acland, Mr Blamire, Mrs
Rigg, Sylvia Rigg, Avril Dobson.
Mrs Braithwaite, Kirkland, accommodated cyclists.
- P. 11. Kent Brookes instituted Kent Geological Prize at Heversham Grammar School.
Nominated by Labour Party as a magistrate.
- P.12 Served 15 years as a magistrate.
-

Closed section pages 13 to 15